Christmas in July is still on!

With Boyd Bears and Cherished Teddies

When H4G Founder Char Pachniak's sister died very unexpectedly in a traffic accident, a large portion of her collection was donated to Horizons4Girls. Rather than have them continue in the basement of a volunteer, let's make dreams come true by giving them new homes. They can be purchased for as low as $5 each when you buy 5 or more!

Harvest Fest Half Marathon

Volunteers needed!

Go support Horizons4Girls at the Harvest Fest Marathon and 10k!! This year's event is set for September 26th, 2015. The Harvest Fest Half Marathon compliments Sheboygan's annual Harvest Fest, bringing morning festivities East of the Sheboygan River.

Horizons4Girls will be directing and refueling participants along the route. We need volunteers, please sign up to help here.

Meet Faith

Our newest 4-legged mentor!

Call it 'gut feeling', 'intuition'. Faith is fine tuning that 'radar' she has. Students become, focused, and open to communication with this bundle of love and loyalty perched in their lap. Faith is open, accepting, forgiving and listens with no prejudging.

As we move into our 2015-16 school year, Faith continues to hone her social skills...after all she is still a pup. We look forward to everyone getting know this 9 pound angel.

Horizons and Optimists join forces

Our girls embark on running their own JOOI Club

We're currently in the planning stages of forming a new Junior Optimist Octagon International \(JOOI\) Club. This youth group offers children in the community the opportunity to help other kids through volunteerism and positive activity. With the guidance of local Sheboygan Noon Optimist Club, the girls will govern their group and its activities. Stay tuned for more information on this great opportunity for our girls, coming September 1st!

Bake Sale @ a Brat Fry

The Horizons girls show off their skills

To kick off our JOOI Club fundraising efforts, the girls will be hosting a bake sale at the Sheboygan Noon Optimists Annual Brat Fry. This year the event will take place at Meisfeld's Market. Come join us on September 19 for good food and two great causes. Proceeds from the brat fry will go to support the Mead Public Library's 1000 Books Before Kindergarten.
